

Before

NHS Tayside Board has asked the Executive team to develop a dashboard approach to performance reporting and assurance. It is increasingly recognised that high quality information presented through a dashboard approach is a key driver in promoting a performance and improvement culture within organisations by providing a balanced and intuitive view of improvement and performance.

After

The NHS Tayside Board has asked the executive team to develop a dashboard method for performance reporting and assurance. It will be increasingly recognised that high quality information shown through a dashboard approach is key in endorsing a performance and improvement culture within groups by giving a balanced and natural view of improvement and performance.
